Sharon Fangman read the minutes and gave treasurers report. Motion to accept as read was made by Dan Gillet and seconded by Bob Petzinger. Approved as read.

We greeted 100 AMTRAK passengers in May. The greeter program is now 2 years old and if we want to continue the program we need more volunteer greeters.

Sharon mailed a letter with flyer to 28 newspaper and radio stations asking for coverage of the Civil War Camp and vendor event on the 27th. The flyer is also posted on 11 facebook sites. We asked KBUR to interview Dan Gillet, a member of both groups , on air .

Renderings of renovation of depot grand room and specs on roof, heat, air, and electrical will be displayed on the 27th.

Signs promoting the 27th will be placed along main street and on the carriage Dan will bring early for display.

The IDOT Grant will be considered June 9th and we should hear final figures July 1st. Friends of the Depot share of match grant is $40,000.00.

July 1st is membership renewal time. The $15.00 membership fees pay our functioning costs.

Lois Traman made a motion to reimburse Sharon $46.32, for printer ink and stamps. Diane Sweeden 2nd and approved by voice vote.

A purposed car show at the depot in the fall was discussed. Friends of the Depot would use it as a fundraiser. This was tabled until next month to set a date.

Dan Gillet made motion to adjourn and Bob Petzinger 2nd the motion.
