We greeted 63 AMTRAK passengers in September.

We did a review of our Car Show fundraiser held September 26th. Sharon passed out a summary of where the money was raised. We more than tripled our profit from the last fundraiser. The 50/50 raffle was our biggest moneymaker. We agreed we will aim for more early sales before next event.

It was suggested vintage motorcycles with the cars would be a good addition. The vendors did not have enough sales to justify setting up, thusly vendors need to be replaced with another money maker. The Amish have agreed to serve lunch in addition to baked goods and homemade ice cream at our next event.

The fundraiser headed by Jason Strandberg and Cyndi Parks has money starting to come in. They will be speaking to several service org. this month. Sharon showed a sample appreciation/tax receipt letter she is sending to donors.

Don Traman presented our insurance bill for payment. Diane Sweeden made motion we pay and Gretchen Walls seconded the motion. Approved by voice vote.

Diane Sweeden submitted a bill for "thank you" flowers given to Laurene Morse for allowing us to feature her 1910 Burg. Lois Traman made motion we pay and Bob Petinger seconded. Approved for payment by voice vote.

Bob Petzinger made motion we adjourn and seconded by Betty Raines.
